

A Crafty Way to Help Orphaned and Injured Wildlife

Attention knitters and crocheters! Looking for a way to use your skills to help wildlife? Did you know there are knitting and crocheting patterns for making little nest for birds, squirrels, rabbits and other rescued wild animals? Donate these little nests to your local wildlife refuge or SPCA, or keep them handy in case you find a wild animal in need. You can even make a bed for your cat. Visit <https://www.facebook.com/wildliferescuenests> to get access to patterns for many different kinds of cozy animal nests.

Happy knitting!
